KUSIF builds useful networks and alliances between Sarıyer and Koç University (KU) community; conducts and cooperates joint projects. Provides support and assistance to courses that study/examine Sarıyer’s local problems through their field studies/modules. Offers consultancy for members of KU community who would like to get involved with Sarıyer’s local problems. Increases awareness of the local problems of Sarıyer through its in-campus activities.

KUSIF develops modules and content to be integrated to both undergraduate and graduate course specifically on social impact and sustainability issues. Offers the Community Engagement and Leadership Track that is specialized for undergraduate students. Supports the offering of courses on social impact at the undergraduate and graduate levels. Organizes trainings on sustainability for the KU community.

Supports Koç University students who want to work on topics related to social impact. Integrates those interested from the staff and academia to its projects. Encourages Koç University to become a sustainable campus; prepares a report in the same field and develops strategy along with the KU community.

Develops social impact tools and guides. Organizes workshops and trainings. Organizes social impact conferences and seminars. Develops and disseminates information through its websites, social media and publications.

KUSIF serves as a consultant institution/body on the topic of social impact. Builds the Turkey Social Impact Group.

Increased knowledge of social impact actors on social impact measurement.

Increased skills of social impact actors on social impact measurement.

Increased knowledge of the KU community on social impact and sustainability through its academic programs and projects.

Increased skills of the KU community on social impact and sustainability through its academic programs and projects.

Increased contribution of Koç University to Sarıyer area.

Koç University’s interest and contribution to social impact issues increases.

Social Impact actors are able to create greater social impact.

Increased motivation and skills of social impact actors in measuring their social impacts.

Increased knowledge of social impact actors on social impact measurement.

Increased skills of social impact actors on social impact measurement.

Increased contribution of Koç University to Sarıyer area.

Koç University’s interest and contribution to social impact issues increases.

Social Impact actors are able to create greater social impact.